Dear Sir,

Thank you for your letters with reference to the proposed publication of my translation of your little book on Hieroglyphs. I am sorry the scheme has fallen through, as I am perfectly sure that there would be a good sale for such a work in England and America and that it would contribute to the spread of knowledge of Ancient Egypt.

I regret too that my plans to visit Berlin have not matured, as your Berlin police authorities refused my friend Mr Falkoner a permit, and they have vouchsafed no reply to my own application. So we decided to postpone our visit until next year.

I hope to have the pleasure of meeting you some day in less troublous times.

Yours very truly,

R W Sloley

Professor Erman
