Sept 9th 1935

Dear Professor Erman, Very many thanks for so kindly sending me a copy of your "Gedächtnisrede".
I sincerely hope that you are keeping quite well, and that the unpleasant and treacherous weather, which we are at present experiencing in England, has not reached Berlin.

My grammatical and syntactical work is still progressing very well, and I expect to be visiting Berlin again in the near future, in connection with it.

All the Oxford egyptologists send their kindest regards to you.

Please remember me very kindly to Frau Professor Erman and to Professor Grapow.

Yours sincerely,
T.W. Thacker.
