Dear Prof. Gorman.

I do myself the pleasure of sending you an article on Egyptian Ceramic art. It was not, of course, intended for experts, like yourself, but to endeavour to interest the general public in the subject, & to induce us to regard works of Egyptian art as works of art, & not as mere curios.

Major Myers has bequeathed his Egyptian collection to his old school,

5
Eton College. By so doing he has insured his splendid collection of Tunab pottery being kept together, which is a great gain.

With kind regards
very sincerely yours
Henry Wallis.

I had intended in a second article carrying on the story of E. Ceramic art. to late Roman Times. But it has to be postponed. The Journal has to cater for the public, ~~the~~ & that blessed entity now craves only for articles on the reorganization of the Army.
