May 22, 1928.

My dear Professor Erman,

I am a student of Prof. Breasteds and at present a member of his epigraphic expedition at Medinet Habu. This summer I am studying at the University of Berlin.

Naturally we at Chicago have always felt a great debt to the Berlin egyptologists, and particularly to you, our "spiritual grandfather."
It would give me great pleasure if Mrs. Wilson and I might call at your home next Sunday afternoon and pay our respects to you.

Please forgive me for writing in English; my German is still very faulty.

Sincerely yours,

John A. Wilson
