Handwritten symbols and lines at the bottom of the page, including a wavy line and a rectangular box.

Handwritten musical notation on three staves, featuring various symbols, clefs, and rhythmic markings. The notation is arranged in three vertical columns, with the rightmost column containing the most complex and dense symbols, including what appears to be a large, stylized clef or key signature symbol at the top. The middle and left columns contain more rhythmic and melodic symbols, including wavy lines, vertical strokes, and various geometric shapes. The paper is aged and shows some staining.

Handwritten symbols in three vertical columns, likely representing a form of shorthand or a specific dialect of a script. The symbols are arranged in three columns, separated by vertical lines. The symbols include various geometric shapes, lines, and stylized figures, such as birds and human-like forms. The script is written on aged, yellowed paper.
