

Antiq. XXI, 4:

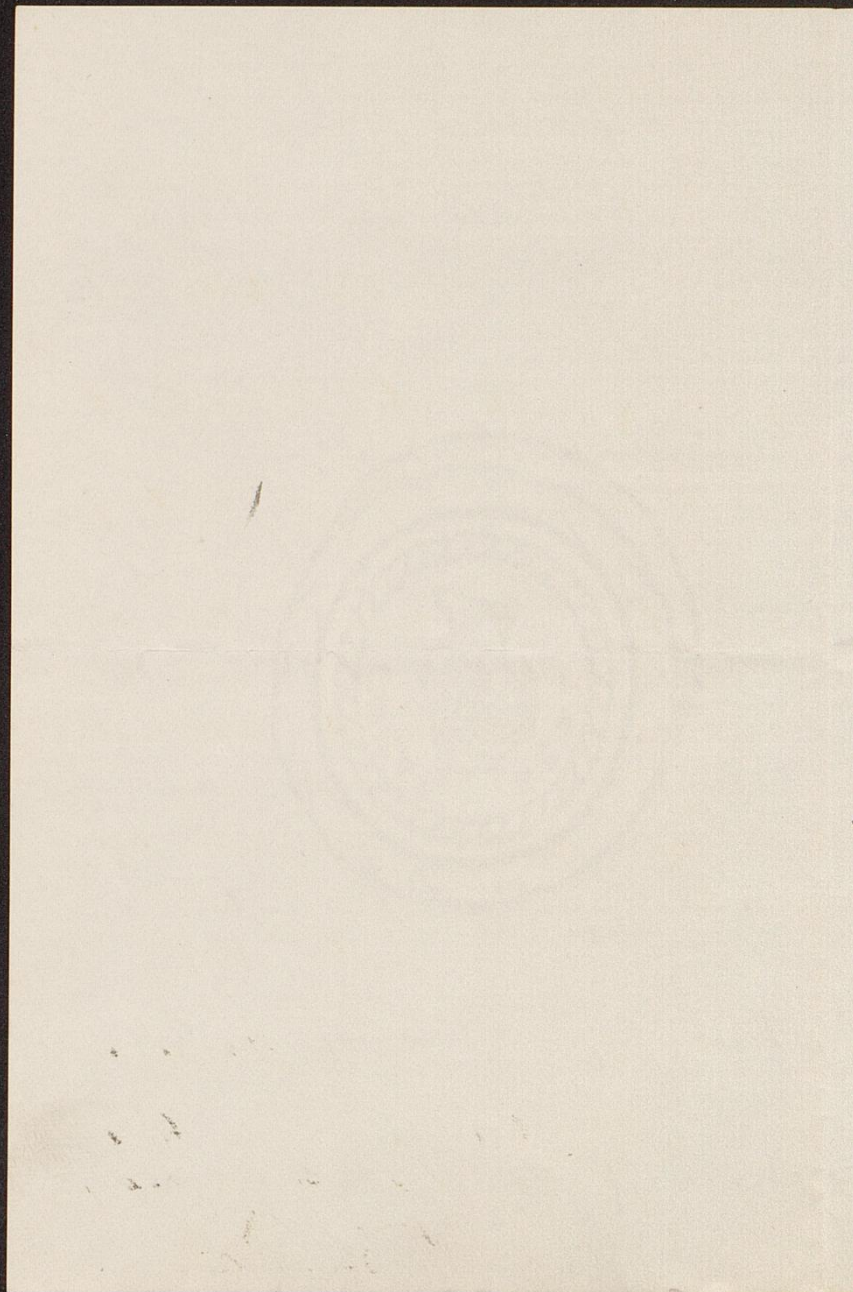

2, Nr. 1

Ballard College Oxford

Nov. 28th 1885

Wundergelehrter Herr College!

I shall be most happy to let my name appear along with yours & those of so many eminent writers on philosophy & especially on Kant.
I've and King and made the haste is but, owing to my being so much occupied with other things, I have little hope of being able to contribute to the Kant Studien - at least for some time to come. At the same time I cannot but wish it all success, & hope that it may do much to further the study of the great philosophical movement that began with Kant Long Sir with much regard Yours truly

Edward Caird

