Dear Professor Väehingos:

I have just time for a word today to say that I send by post today: (1) a short review of Ladd's book, (2) Selbst-Anzeige of thesis by Majoo, (3) Summary of article by Miss Calkins (Professor at Wellesley College).

I hope that you will find the review of Ladd long enough. It is a very pretentious book but contains nothing that is new. And his air of profundity and superior wisdom are most irritating. I have tried however not to let my feelings of irritation influence my review.

If you do not put it in Heft IV please send me proofs.
I was sorry that I did not ask you to send me another proof of my paper on Kant in America. There were several misprints. I have written out the review of Ladd as carefully as possible, and do not think that the printer's will find any difficulty in reading it.

The notice of Major's thesis
I copied from the preface.
As he worked under my direction in preparing the work, it would not be right for me to review it.
It would be very agreeable to me if you or some other German scholar would criticise it. I should be glad to get your opinion of the work done here, at Cornell for the Doctor's degree.

I am sensible of the faults of Major's ~~these~~ work and I hope next year to send you some better samples of our students' work.
But it is perhaps up to the average, ~~and~~ as theses go, & I should be glad if you thought it worth noticing further in the Kant. Studien. At any rate I hope that it will not fare so badly as Eckoff's translation did at Windelband's hands. (That ^{thesis} represented Columbia College & University). Eckoff however brought that crushing criticism upon himself by his silly attack on Windelband.

I have no doubt that the American agents you mention are satisfactory in every respect.
When I wrote, I never noticed that their names appear on the covers. Do you think that it would be a good idea to exchange advertisements with one or two American journals?

We (The Philos. Review) will be glad to exchange a page advertisement at any time.
The last number — ~~and indeed~~ ~~all the numbers~~ have been ~~very~~ very interesting, as indeed all the numbers have

I beg you to pardon the appearance of this letter. I am anxious to catch the mail, so that the letter & M.S. will go on tomorrow's boat.

With kindest regards,

Yours Sincerely,

J. G. Creighton
