

Tokyo, Nov. 5, 1875.

Dr. Hans Kinkor,

Dear Professor, —

Your favor of Sept. 16th was duly received and I thank you for & am indebted to kind extended to me to contribute for the Kantianism which you are intending to publish soon.
I shall be happy to send my humble short occasional though I can promise you nothing definite at present on account of various duties on hand.

You are requested to send a list of names, which will show you those who are interested in the study of Kant here in Japan. I know no one who would be a Contributor for your Journal but if such persons are found, I should be happy to send your message to them & to write you about them & their addresses.

I hope your undertaking will prove the very successful in stimulating the thing about all over the world.

Prof. Kanai was very glad to receive your greetings & asked me to send his best wishes to you.

Very sincerely yours

R. Nakashima.

then to the others

Life is interesting and from the very beginning the things we see and do are all so new and so different from what we have seen before. It is a new world to us and we are all so full of curiosity to know what it is all about.

Life is a long journey and we are all so full of hope and faith. We are all so full of love and kindness. We are all so full of life and so full of
joy. We are all so full of peace and so full of happiness. We are all so full of love and so full of
happiness.
