

Tokyo, April 6. 1891.

Dear Prof. Vaikinger;

Your favour was duly received & should have had its answer before this. Your request of reporting the study of Kant in Japan wanted eagerly responded, if not for the opportunity of introducing my friend Dr. Onishi to you. I gave him a letter introducing him to you & he will tell you all about the present condition of the Kantian study in Japan. He is a graduate of the University & well informed of philosophical tendencies in Japan & I hope you will write of Kant in Japan when you hear about it from Dr. Onishi, who is better than I can write about it. Very respectfully,

P. Nakashima.

Tuesday April 6. 1871.

Dear Prof. Huxley.

Your favour was duly received & I thank you very much for it.

I am very glad to hear that you are still in good health.

I am very glad to hear that

you are still in good health.

I am very glad to hear that

you are still in good health.

I am very glad to hear that

you are still in good health.

I am very glad to hear that

you are still in good health.

I am very glad to hear that you are still in good health.